VETPARTNERS ANNUAL MEETING TO FEATURE GERRY FAUST AND JACK CANFIELD

Clermont, FL—January 25, 2010. After a tough year for every small business owner, VetPartners' annual meeting this March will feature two well-known speakers who are sure to energize and refocus attendees on making 2010 their best year ever.

In choosing the speakers, Dr. Bill Kearley, program committee chair for VetPartners states, "This past recession shook many businesses to the core. Consultants and their veterinary clients are eager to find out what steps they can now take to realign their business plans and set their goals for the future into action."

Dr. Gerry Faust kicks off the meeting on March 16, 2010 in Long Beach, CA, with a dynamic and entertaining program on the specific roles that management must play to be successful both in the short and long term. Jack Canfield, originator of the Chicken Soup for the Soul series and America's #1 Success Coach, will present a specially tailored interactive workshop on his best-selling book, The Success Principles: How to Get From Where You Are to Where You Want to Be.

VetPartners President Dr. Peter Weinstein is excited about the opportunity to bring Jack Canfield's lessons to the veterinary profession, "I was sold since the first time I picked up Jack's book! The positive energy from this meeting is sure to create a ripple effect in the veterinary profession."

To maintain the intimate interactive opportunity with these speakers, registrations will be limited to 150 attendees. Registration is now available at www.VetPartners.org.
